CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to everyone involved in Pendle Hippodrome Theatre, and that means YOU. No matter how large or small a part you play in the operations of the Theatre, from the Chairman to the tea lady, you can all feel very proud of yourselves for Pendle Hippodrome Theatre has won the Mayor of Pendle's Volunteer Organisation of the Year Award 2010.

There are hundreds of volunteers within our Theatre organisation and we welcome anyone who wants to come along and help with the very varied programme of activities on offer to both old and young alike. We always stress that the Theatre is run entirely by volunteers and there are no paid staff. That is exactly why we were able to enter and win this year's Award. Prior to the Awards the Mayoral Party had visited the Theatre to see what the Hippodrome had to offer and they had thoroughly enjoyed the full Theatre Tour they were given.

The Mayor's Volunteer Awards recognise the work by individuals and groups of volunteers in Pendle and we entered as we felt everyone involved with the Theatre, the Theatre Company and the Youth Theatre deserved recognition for the work they do within the Theatre as a whole. Last year we were nominated in the Community Building of the Year category but this year we decided to enter the Community Organisation section. We were up against some stiff opposition alongside Colne Open Door, the Hoopoe Club, Safe Space and Pendle Domestic Violence Initiative, all of whom do excellent work in the area, but we managed to win!

After the presentation of the 12 Mayor's Volunteer Awards we approached the Mayor of Pendle Councillor Marjorie Adams to thank her and she explained she had been impressed by the fact that the whole organisation is completely run by volunteers and has no outside funding.

Each of the Awards is sponsored by local businesses and ours was sponsored by Farmhouse Biscuits which seemed appropriate as we consume great quantities of their products within our organisation throughout the year.

Well Done Everyone. The trophy will be proudly displayed in the box office.
